PRESS RELEASE

FCG announces partnership with RISMA Systems A/S

Today, we are delighted to announce a new strategic partnership between FCG Risk & Compliance AB (FCG) and RISMA Systems A/S (RISMA) focusing on joint Governance, Risk, and Compliance (GRC) solutions for insurance customers in the financial services industry.

The partnership between FCG and RISMA aims to help insurance customers by leveraging FCG's strong business acumen, high competence in the GRC field and vast consulting experience from the financial industry with RISMA's unique GRC suite providing an integrated solution that powers the entire organization's performance and competitiveness.

For FCG, the partnership is a natural extension of our strategy to proactively help our clients by creating sustainable governance, risk and compliance solutions tailored to our client's needs, using tech enabled GRC systems for the modern financial industry.

For RISMA the partnership is yet another big milestone in the strategic market development and expansion.

"We are excited about partnering with RISMA, as we get to combine a leading-edge GRC tech solution with our deep regulatory expertise within insurance. Our partnership will help our clients manage compliance in their business processes and improve their ability to navigate a complex GRC environment. This will enable us to deliver stronger impact and long-lasting client-relationships." says Jim Gustafsson, Partner and Head of Business Area Insurance at FCG.

"We are very pleased to announce the partnership with FCG. For the last 6 months we have experienced great customer success within the financial sector in Denmark for the solutions targeted specifically towards this sector. Entering a partnership with a consulting firm specialized in the financial industry is therefore a strategic decision where we see a significant potential for both parties and most importantly for the customers – particularly in Sweden. Every day, we engage with companies and create great customer value with our GRC solution, and we are confident that current and future clients will see much more value creation and even greater benefits with FCG as a partner", says Lars Munksgaard, CEO & Founder of RISMA Systems.
